

Principal Medical Writer

Location: Altrincham, Cheshire

Salary: Competitive

Requirements: A proven track record of working successfully (5+ years) in an agency/medical communications environment in a medical writing function

Job type: Permanent (flexible working considered)

Alpharmaxim Healthcare Communications is looking for a Principal Medical Writer to fulfil a varied and interesting role as part of a talented team.

The role

- You will provide high-level scientific and technical consultancy services, both internally and externally, through leading strategic and editorial development, and coordinating the implementation of client communication programmes with a focus on deliverables (including key messages, content and overall quality of all materials).
- This role has a 100% writing/editorial focus, and will concentrate on writing, reviewing, mentoring and leading projects/small accounts from the editorial side.
- The analysis and interpretation of complex scientific/technical data and your ability to confidently use those skills within the working environment (both internal and external) is essential for this role.
- Other responsibilities will include confident liaison with clients, thought leaders and authors to support proactive and considered delivery.

Alpharmaxim

We provide strategic and tactical marketing and communication support to a broad range of clients at the forefront of scientific research and innovation across the pharmaceutical, biotech, medical device, diagnostic and vaccine sectors. As a small and dynamic company, we are able to offer unusually varied and flexible job opportunities that are tailored to your particular strengths and needs. Our friendly and supportive team will enable you to grow and succeed in your career.
